Governor Leon Guerrero Signs Executive Order No. 2021-11

Today, Governor Lou Leon Guerrero signed Executive Order No. 2021-11, relative to launching the All RISE Program by expanding eligibility for the Recovery Income Support and Empowerment (RISE) Act, and orders such that:

- In addition to individuals designated as eligible to receive payments under Public Law No. 35-136, otherwise known as the RISE Act, employees of both local and federal governments and their retirees, during the tax year 2020 shall be eligible to receive such payments pursuant to this Executive Order, subject to the remaining eligibility requirements, conditions and limitations provided in the RISE Act. The expanded program established herein, which shall include the initial RISE Program established in Public Law No. 35-136 and the expanded eligibility provided in this order, shall be known as the All RISE Program.
- The Department of Revenue and Taxation (DRT) is to administer the All RISE Program and distribute payments to eligible individuals.
- DRT shall implement the All RISE Program within thirty (30) working days of the identification of funds for these purposes.
- Delivery of payments and reporting requirements for the All RISE Program will be as provided in the RISE Act.
- The DRT director is designated as the official responsible for overseeing the All RISE Program.
