No Immediate Threat to Marianas Assessed from Reported North Korea Launch

The Offices of Guam Homeland Security and Civil Defense (GHS/OCD), in conjunction with the Mariana Regional Fusion Center (MRFC), federal and military partners, continue to monitor events surrounding the region including reports of the recent launch of an unidentified projectile out of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea (DPRK) today.

“GHS/OCD was informed there was no immediate threat to the Marianas from this evening’s reported launch,” said Guam Homeland Security Advisor, Esther Aguigui. “With open lines of communication between GHS/OCD and our federal and military partners, we will continue to monitor all events in our region.”
