No Immediate Threat to Marianas Assessed from Reported North Korea Launch

The Offices of Guam Homeland Security and Civil Defense (GHS/OCD), in conjunction with the Mariana Regional Fusion Center (MRFC), federal and military partners, continue to monitor events surrounding the region including reports of the recent launch of an unidentified projectile out of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea (DPRK) today.

“At this time, there is no indication of any direct threat to the Marianas from the reported activity,” said Esther Aguigui, Guam Homeland Security Advisor. “Our agencies remain in close coordination with federal, territorial, and military partners to ensure continuous monitoring and to provide timely updates as needed.”
